OF THE WAR MEASURES ACT

WHEREAS the federal government has introduced the Public Order (Temporary Measures) Acts 1970 to replace the invocation by it of the War Measures Act and the regulations enacted thereunder; and

WHEREAS the invocation of the War Measures Act, and particularly abuses under the regulations both in Quebec and other parts of Canada, violated the cherished principles of Canadians in their concerns for the rights and liberties of free men and women in a democratic society;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that this Fourteenth convention of the OFL:

- 1) Supports the intent of the specific legislation under the Public Order (Temporary Measures) Act 1970 to frustrate the terroristic methods used by the FLQ on the pretense that they were seeking social change
- 2) Stresses the need for close scrutiny of the terms of the Act to ensure that the rights and liberties of Canadians are preserved and protected
